

BIBLIOGRAPHY & INTERNET RESOURCES

Technology and Case Management Systems

Books and Articles:

Walker, J. Douglas. A Court Manager's Information Display System: A Conceptual Design and Mockup System. Williamsburg, VA: National Center for State Courts, 1997. (KF8732 .W36)

Online Resources:

Case Management Systems

A series of classic articles written by Jim McMillan, Director of the Court Technology Laboratory, and published in several issues of the Court Technology Bulletin (1995) that discusses four basis types of data in a case management system = person, time, case, and financial.

Case Management Systems Vendors

National Center for State Courts "Court Technology Vendors List ". Profiles of vendors that provide products and services relating to case management systems and Case Management Solutions to the court community.

Court Technology Laboratory

The NCSC Court Technology Laboratory in Williamsburg, Virginia, offers courts the unique opportunity to view new technologies in a neutral environment in which they are free to ask questions and compare systems without undue sales pressure.

The Fifth Bubble

An article by Jim McMillan from the November/December 2001 issue of the Court Technology Bulletin. introducing a fifth data type – documents to the above model.

Kuencer, Walter, and David C. Steelman. "Automation and Organization Development in Egypt." Presented at the Seventh National Court Technology Conference, Baltimore, MD, August 2001.

Missouri Statewide Automation

Phase III abstract from the Institute of Court Management's Court Executive Development Program. (2000). The focus of this paper is the successful adaptation of a case management system designed for trial courts to an appellate case management system.

Use of Court Automation to Aid Fiduciary Management in Large Urban Probate Courts
A Technical Assistance report by David Steelman of NCSC Court Consulting Services (March 2000).

State Court Links:

- Florida STAC2000 Case Tracking System – a case tracking system for prosecuting attorneys and public defenders.
- Indiana Indiana Statewide Case Management System - including an updated policy statement (June 2005) on Trial Court Case Management Systems.

Resources (Bibliography)

- Iowa Iowa Court Information System - A functional description of the Iowa Court Information System. (1991)
- Minnesota MNCIS Project - The Minnesota Court Information System, a new computer system that will link court records across the state. (September 2002)
- Missouri Missouri Court Automation - Missouri's statewide case management system began in 1997, expanded to 53 courts in early 2001 and scheduled for completion in 2004.
- Texas Case Management Software Information. Descriptions of Appellate, District and County, and Justice of the Peace and Municipal Case Management systems in Texas from the Texas Office of Court Administration \(OCA\).